Johnsonville, Full Time, Real Estate Sales

- Be in charge of your own destiny with a rewarding career move
- Experienced Salespeople & Entry Level Applicants welcome
- Positive work environment with excellent training & support

Whether you're considering a career in Real Estate or an experienced Salesperson looking for a change in the right direction, we can help you reach your goals.

Guardian First National in Johnsonville is looking for sales superstars to join our team selling real estate specializing in the Northern Suburbs and also covering the greater Wellington area.

You will enjoy a positive working environment and will be taken under the wings of our full time Non Selling Manager who will ensure your success.

Exceptional training will be offered to bring you up to speed with the First National recipe for success, and for those who aren't yet licensed we will Guide you through the REAA qualifications process.

Real Estate is a career move for those who value:

- Being genuinely rewarded for the efforts you put in
- Taking control of your own success
- Working as your own boss and setting your own standards
- Earning a very healthy income only limited by your own efforts

It is a fantastic industry where you work closely with real people every day. On top of financial rewards, the satisfaction of helping people into their own homes is extremely rewarding.

To succeed you will need to be self motivated with strong business acumen and have great relationship and negotiation skills. Above all else you must be a people person with some real life experience – both professional and personal.
